

Information sources pertaining to COVID-19

11/03/2020

With the fast-evolving situation surrounding COVID-19 in Europe and across the world, members of the rare disease community may be concerned about their health.

Please find below links to official information sources that are updated regularly. We also advise that you refer to information published by your own national health authorities/ ministries.

- World Health Organization
- European Centre for Disease Control
 - National information resources for the public on COVID-19
- US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

We stand in solidarity with people in Europe & around the world affected by COVID-19.